

Study program: Physical Education and Sport
Type and level of studies: Master academic studies
ECTS: 12
Condition: All exams were passed, ie 48 ESPB points were achieved
Final work objectives: The goal of the final work is to give the student a professional maturity in performing the competencies he / she acquires at the end of the studies. By completing the thesis, a student should show the level of professional maturity that relates to the adoption and application of knowledge acquired during the course of studies, in which he also demonstrates the ability to connect various knowledge gained during the studies in the context of the problem to which the final work relates. The aim of the thesis is to point out to the student's ability to articulate a problem of interest for professional competence in cooperation with professors. The thesis should also show the maturity of the student, in a written way, using the elementary methodology to elaborate the problem of the work, as well as the ability to write possible future papers in the profession. Radom student proves that he has mastered the technique of monitoring professional literature and that he is capable of logically using it in their own professional development.
Expected outcomes The student, who defended his work, shows that he has mastered competences in the field of physical education, sports and recreation, and that he was trained to apply the experience acquired within his work in immediate practice
General facilities Graduate thesis represents the final work of the student, which refers to the field of physical education, sports and recreation. The thesis of the student is in writing, which must be a coherent unit from which clearly identifies the problem preceded by Introduction and Theoretical Approach to Work. The conclusions of the thesis must arise from the elaboration of the problems and the results obtained, while the literature review must be in accordance with the applicable methodological criteria
Methods of execution Theoretical-empirical, descriptive, analytical and synthetic method of logical conclusion.
Knowledge assessment (maximum score 100) Activity in preparation of work 20 points The degree of autonomy in making 20 points Technical workmanship 20 points Presentation and defense of work 40 points