

Study program: Physical Education and sport
Type and level of studies: Master academic studies
Course title: ENGLISH LANGUAGE AND ACADEMIC WRITING
Lecturer or lecturers (for lectures): Vekarić V. Gordana, Bokan B. Božo
Lecturer (for practical classes): Vekarić V. Gordana
Course status: elective
ECTS: 5
Condition: /
Course objectives: Leading the master study students towards their first scientific papers in English language (textbook in combination with authentic, texts, tailored to experience and interests of the students.
Course outcome: In compliance with the needs and abilities of the master study students to publish results of their research in a foreign language, they are trained to engage in professional discussion, reading of relevant literature and writing of abstracts and papers. The focus of the learning process is interactive student-oriented interaction with a teacher as the organizer of the activities. This fully complies with the aim of the course, mastering of the skills necessary for successful written communication and interaction between a writer of a scientific paper and his/her readers..
Course description
Theoretical instruction
Students are introduced with the initial phases of the academic writing process starting with topic selection, review of the sources, their integration in one's own paper, followed by the rhetorical features of different paragraph types and obligatory elements of persuasive writing. Introduction to the characteristics of academic writing genre in English language.
Practical classes: exercises
In collaboration with the core course teachers, students can prepare a research plan and an abstract for their study research paper in English language.
References:
Zemah, E.D., Broudy D, Valvona C.: Writing Research paper (from essay to research paper)(Mackmillan)
McCarthy M., O'Dell F.: Academic Vocabulary in use - Cambridge University Press
Oxford Student's English Serbian dictionary.
No. of active classes :			Other lessons 4
Lectures: 3	Exercises: 1	Other teaching forms: / Study research paper: /
Teaching method. Lectures and use of authentic materials for discussion and as a writing topic.
Knowledge assessment (maximum of 100 pints)
Exam prerequisites	points	Final examination	points
Class Activities	20	Written examination	20
Practical instruction	20	Oral examination	20
Preliminary exam	20
Seminar papers	-		