

Study program / study programs: Physical education and sports
Type and level of studies: Master academic studies
Course title: MANAGEMENT IN EDUCATION AND SPORT
Lecturer or lecturers (for lectures): Srecko Jovanovic
Lecturer / Associate (for practice): Marko Cosic
Course status: Elective
ECTS: 5
Condition:
Course objectives: Acquiring new knowledge in the field of management, modern scientific discipline that studies the problems of governance in organizations and organizational systems. Introduction and utilization of modern theories, methods and management techniques that are used in organizations in the education and sports system.
Course outcome: Training students for application of modern expertise in the field of management as well as the methods and techniques to organizations in the education and sports system.
Contents description Theory teaching Theoretical classes are covered knowledge of management as a scientific discipline, basic processes and functional areas of management and management specialized disciplines. A special part refers to the application and the manner of implementation of management processes in terms of economic, legal and sociological impact on the organization in two separate systems: the education system and the system of organization in the sport. Practical classes: The study and application of methods and techniques of management in the organization; Planning methods; Methods of organizing; Control methods; Required knowledge and skills of managers; Types of teams; Creating a team; Decision-making and modern methods for making business decisions. Value-based management. Value chain management. Quality as a strategic tool. Roles and tasks of managers. Managers and chairing meetings. Case studies. Information and information systems; The new management systems in sports.
References Jovanović, P.(2005). Management: theory and praxis. Beograd: Fakultet organizacionih nauka. Bush, T., Bell, L.(2002). The Principles and Practice of Educational Management. London: Sage publication Tomić, M. (2001). Management in sport. Beograd: Narodna biblioteka Srbije. Slack, T. (1997). Understanding Sport Organizations: The Application of Organization Theory. Champaign, IL: Human kinetics Hendersen, R.I. (2003). Compensation management in knowledge: Based world. New Jersey: Prentace Hall
No. of active classes			Other classes:
Lectures: 3	Practical classes: 1	Other forms of teaching:	Study research work:
Teaching methods Theoretical lectures; practical lectures
Knowledge assessment (maximum score 100)
Pre-exam obligations	points	Final exam	points
Activity on classes	10	Practical exam
Practical classes		Oral exam	40
Colloquium	30
Seminar	20		