

Study program: Physical Education and Sport
Type and level of studies: Basic academic studies
Course title: PEDAGOGY
Lecturer or lecturers (for lectures): Savovic B. Branka
Lecturer / Associate (for practice):
Course status: Obligatory
ECTS: 4
Condition: None
Course objectives: Familiarizing students with basic pedagogical concepts and phenomena; gaining insight into contemporary concepts of upbringing; acquaintance with social, psychological, ethical and other dimensions of education as an individual and social process; acquiring basic pedagogical knowledge for understanding educational contents.
Course outcome: Acquiring sufficient training as a teacher to participate in the process of education; accepting the importance of social and personal factors in the formation of an integral personality; understanding the discourse of upbringing and education, self-upbringing and self-education in the development in different contexts.
Course contents description: Theoretical instruction: Pedagogy, education, teaching; goals of upbringing and educational process; formulation of the goal of upbringing in different contexts, pedagogical and other literature; general principles of upbringing; general methods and means of upbringing. Pupil as a child - student - athlete ; educator as a teacher - trainer .
References: Savović, B. (2017): Pedagogija (Pedagogy), Belgrade: Faculty of sport & PE.
No. of active classes				Other classes:
Lectures: 3	Exercises/ Practical classes: 0	Other forms of teaching:	Study research work:
Teaching method Lectures, seminars, group work, individual consultations, etc.
Knowledge assessment (maximum score 100)
Exam prerequisites	points	Final examination	points
Class Activities	10	Written exam
Practical instruction		Practical exam
Preliminary exam / Colloquium	30	Oral exam	50
Seminar papers	10		