

Study program / study programs: Recreation
Type and level of studies: Basic professional studies
Course title: ORGANIZATION AND ADMINISTRATION IN SPORT
Lecturer or lecturers (for lectures): Mitrovic N. Darko
Course status: Optional
ECTS: 4
Condition: The course has no specific prerequisites
Course objectives: The course objective is to enable students to gain basic knowledge in theory of organization in sport as one of the management functions so that in that manner they can be capable of managing processes in sport and physical education as well as to gain knowledge relating to administrative function in sport and physical education.
Course outcome: The expected outcome of the program is to have students fully comprehend the significance of organization in contemporary processes in sport as well as to have students capable of managing sportive and administrative functions and working within governing bodies of sport organizations.
Course content Theoretical teaching Organization and organizing, theoretical ways in examining the organization, specifics of a sport organization, process of organizing, relations in the structure of a sport organization, organizational culture of a sport organization, organization of an administrative function. Practical teaching Law on Sports, Organizational Documents of the UN and UNESCO, establishment of sports organizations, statutes, regulations, relations in structure, normative, organization of a sports event
References: 1. Tomić. M. (2007): Fundamentals of Sports Organizations (Structure, Culture, Management and Administration), Institute for Textbooks and Teaching Resources, Belgrade
No. of active classes			Other classes:
Lectures: 1	Exercises/ Practical classes: 2	Other forms of teaching:
Methods of execution
Knowledge assessment (maximum score 100)
Exam prerequisites	points	Final exam	points
Attending Practice Hours	10	Written exam
Preparing for practice		Oral Exam	60
Activity during practice
Seminar	30		