

Study program / study programs: Special professional studies Sport
Type and level of studies: Special professional studies
Professional practice for module Children`s sport
Lecturer or lecturers: Branislav N. Jevtic, Irina V. Juhas, Robert J. Ropret
ЕСПБ: 4
Condition: No
Objective: The aim of practical training is an extension of the knowledge acquired in the theoretical and practical training. By observing and actively participating student acquires knowledge on the basis of obvious examples. By participating in professional practice student is providing overview of the entire process of working with children in the organizational, security and methodical sense, and learning about different ways of working. The work of the professional practice student meets and enhances his ability in demonstration, methodology, organization.
Course outcome: Through participation in professional practice student expands his knowledge by observing the work of qualified mentors of practical training, and in practical work under the supervision of a mentor, shows the skills of demonstration task, the application of adequate teaching methods as funds work as in the pedagogical approach to children's age, ability to identify and analyze errors in performing tasks, organizational and security competence. In addition to practical work, the student performs written preparation, and the final analysis of the work.
Contents description: Monitoring the work of a qualified mentor. Based on the observation of the conduct of the workbook. Under the supervision of a mentor, implementation, management classes / training. Participation in the organization of the club / sport school in terms of work planning, technical organization, implementation classes / training, implementation and control of the security measures, the analysis of labor, testing and evaluation skills of the children. Monitoring the work through guidance notes in the workbook / workshop.
Number of hours, if specified	60
Teaching method Student chooses implementation practice in conditions that suit their interests. Observe and analyze the different situations in practice, plans to work on the basis of instructions for carrying out the practices and ideas of their own, realize practice - practical work, write a report with an analysis of planned and actual activities.
Knowledge assessment (maximum score 100)
Attendance hours of practice - 25 Preparation for practice - 20 Activity during practice - 20 Final score – 35 The final score implies insight teachers in actual implementation practices, includes analysis of written preparation for practice and activities during practice	