

Study program / study programs: Sport
Type and level of studies: Special professional studies
Course title: TEACHING METHODS OF CHILDREN`S SPORT
Lecturer or lecturers (for lectures): Irina V. Juhas, Snežana V. Radisavljević Janić, Ivana T. Milanović, Lidija T. Moskovljević,
Lecturer / Associate (for practice): Irina V. Juhas, Snežana V. Radisavljević Janić, Ivana T. Milanović, Lidija T. Moskovljević, Milinko R. Dabović, Zoran F. Bratuša, Milan L. Matic
Course status: Obligatory
ECTS: 5
Condition:
Course objectives: Acquiring knowledge and skills development in accordance with the teaching principles that are important for the development of children's motor skills, first of all, and children's sports in general.
Course outcome: Knowledge and professional skills to build competence in the area of children's sports.
Contents description: Theoretical instruction The concept and importance of the teaching methods of children's sports; Structure of the class - training; Teaching methods of work with preschool children; Teaching methods of work with younger school age children; Teaching methods of work with children of school age; Teaching methods based on sexual characteristics; Teaching methods of competition in childhood; Teaching methods of work with children with special needs; Models of good practice. Practical classes: Structure of the class - training; Teaching methods of work with preschool children; Teaching methods of work with younger school age children; Teaching methods of work with children of school age; Teaching methods based on sexual characteristics; Teaching methods of competition in childhood; Teaching methods of work with children with special needs; Models of good practice.
References: Jevtić, B., Radojević, J., Juhas, I., Ropret, R. (Eds.) (2011). Children's sport from practice to an academic field. Belgrade: Faculty of Sport and Physical Education Stafford, I. (2011). Coaching children in sport. London: Routledge Jones, L.R. (2007). The sports coach as educator, re-conceptualizing sports coaching. London: Routledge Bompa, T. (2005). Total training for young winners, Gopal, Zagreb
No. of active classes				Other classes:
Lectures: 3	Exercises/ Practical classes: 3	Other forms of teaching:	Study research work:
Teaching method Theoretical lectures; practical lectures; individual work in groups
Knowledge assessment (maximum score 100)
Exam prerequisites	points	Final examination	points
Practicum	20	Oral examination	50
Seminar papers	30			