

Study program / study programs: Physical education and sports
Type and level of studies: Specialized Professional Studies Sports
PRACTICE OF MODULE SPECIAL PHYSICAL EDUCATION
Code: SPM4STP
Lecturer or lecturers (for lectures): Jovanovic M. Srecko, Kasum D. Goran, Mudric R. Milos
ECTS: 4
Condition:
The aim of the course: To inform students about the implementation of planned facilities in the area of Special Physical Education (SFO) to work with a different education groups (planning, implementation, analysis and diagnostics).
The outcome of the course: Expected outcomes are to enable students to realize the programs of special physical education in different segments and professional terms, gaining ability to apply learned techniques in appropriate situations. In addition, it is expected that the students, based on their knowledge, skills and abilities are ready to offer new solutions, innovation and improvement of various programs and their realization in accordance with modern requirements.
Contents of the course : Planning, programming, monitoring and implementation of programs SFO in specialized educational institutions and training center. An important content of practice is the application of knowledge in providing objects, persons and material and technical resources.
Number of active classes	60
Methods of teaching The student is to practice defines in one or more of the institution with which they are arranged for the implementation of conditions, with the contents that are related to the applied combat and / or applied field activities. Observation and analysis, practical work.
Score (maximum 100 points)
Attendance of hours of practice - 25
Preparation of practice - 15
Active during the induction period - 25
The final score - 35
The final score means the teacher, in a practical implementation of practice, encompasses the analysis for the practice of the preparation of written and activities during the practice.	